

HIROSHIMA PEACE MEMORIAL MUSEUM

広島平和記念資料館

The Main Building reopens on April 25, 2019

Permanent Exhibition

East Building

The Exhibition consists of three parts: "Introductory Exhibit," "The Dangers of Nuclear Weapons," and "Hiroshima History." In the building, visitors may also access video testimonies of the A-bomb survivors, Special Exhibition (1F), and New Arrivals Exhibit (B1).

Main Building

By displaying personal belongings left behind by the victims as well as exhibits which indicate horrible conditions of the A-bomb devastation, the exhibition represents "Hiroshima on August 6" and expressing the sorrow and suffering of the survivors and the victims' bereaved families, which have continued to the present day.

*This exhibition contains exhibits that can be quite disturbing.
